

ST JOHN'S ANGLICAN CHURCH CANBERRA

8 February 2026
Fifth Sunday after Epiphany
(This week's service times within)

Let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. Matthew 5:16

‘A city on a hill cannot be hidden’, said Jesus (Matthew 5:14).
The view over Old Jerusalem.

St John's exists to bear public witness to Jesus Christ, the source of life.

Prayer of the Day

Faithful God,
you have appointed us your witnesses,
to be a light that shines in the world:
let us not hide the bright hope you have given us,
but tell everyone your love,
revealed in Jesus Christ the Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

BEGINNING 2026—IMPORTANT NOTICES

Supporting St John's. As a new year begins, please take a moment to consider the appropriate level of your regular financial contribution to our parish. We are highly dependent upon regular (preferably automatic) deposits to sustain our growing ministry and care for our site. 'Giving' details can be found on page 10 of this newsletter, or at www.stjohnscanberra.org/giving.

Kids and Youth in 2026. Our program for young people (yrs k-10) begins today at our 9.30am service with 'Start Up Sunday'. Join us after the service for fun and connection (including waterslide, ice cream, and family BBQ).

Our overflow space and cry room will continue to function in the Robertson Room in 2026 during the 9.30am service, to assist families with younger children who may find this space easier.

For older youth, our 6pm service will continue its 'youth check in' after church – a chance to talk about faith and encourage each other.

A new Parish Directory. As St John's grows, it becomes more important to find secure and efficient ways to connect with each other. Next week, Dave and Andrew will introduce a new way forward. We're introducing a computer- and app-based system that puts you in charge of what details we have, so that you can change or delete them at any time. In time, this will greatly help you to engage in our community life. It will also be a great help to church staff (especially if you upload your photo!). After Easter, you may choose to opt into a Parish Directory to enable communication with others who have also opted in. The system has other useful features that we'll overview in the weeks ahead.

Palm Crosses. Those with palm crosses from last year are invited to bring these to church next week, and place them in the basket on the donations box, to create ash for Ash Wednesday services.

AGM. Our parish AGM and Electoral Meeting will be held on Sunday 22 March. From 11.00am, Alan Wilson (parish archivist) will give a presentation on the archives. From 11.30am the meeting itself will begin. We encourage all parishioners to attend so they can engage with the significant and exciting matters facing the parish in the year ahead.

Elections will be held for parish councillors, peoples' wardens, and representatives for our Clergy Appointments Board and Synod. Those wishing to nominate someone for these positions should do so using the nominations form in the church foyer and depositing it in the collections box no later than Sunday 15 March.

Lenten studies. Beginning on Thursday 19 February (7pm, Robertson Room), Rev'd Dave will be leading a Lenten Study on Rowan Williams' book, 'Passions of the Soul' (Bloomsbury, 2024). You will need to get a copy ASAP (a small number remain available for purchase from the parish). Contact rector@stjohnscanberra.org if interested.

Also, from 17 February 'Bible for Blokes' will commence a Lenten Study on Joy, using studies contributed by various Australian Bishops. Cost $10. Enquiries Canon Kevin Stone 0450 676 864.

Name Badges. You can order your own St John's nametag for $17.00 (resin with magnetic back) or $15.00 (pin back). It's a great way to help people connect with you at church. Order at stjohnscanberra.org/payments.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

9.30 Kids' Church – help us serve! Kids' Church at St John's provides teaching, discipleship, and community to the members of our parish aged between 4 years and 11 years.

We are at least 3 people short for this growing ministry. If you are hesitant about your "qualifications", please do not let that stop you – we can provide training and support! If you have even a mustard seed of interest, please reach out to me so we can work together to see if it is the right fit. Mary de Lautour, Children and Families Worker.

Worship support. We are seeking a small group who can support our worship preparations in the leadup to Holy Week and Easter. While there are a number of tasks that need to be done, none are particularly onerous – and many hands make light work. Are you able to help? Please let clergy know.

Chaplaincy training. Sports chaplaincy offers a strategic point of connection with communities of people around us, including many who don't know Jesus. Come along and be trained for a relational model of ministry, learning skills in pastoral care and support. This training is suitable for anyone wanting to make a positive Christian difference in a local community - even if it's not sport! Details about the training here (with a link for the Canberra option towards the bottom of the page): <https://sportschaplaincy.com.au/become-a-chaplain/training-and-accreditation/sports-chaplaincy-training/>

Bell ringing. This continues on the first Sunday of each month at 5pm -6pm. We are looking to grow our team in 2026 – all are welcome to have a go!

What's on your mind?

A recent study undertaken by researchers in Scotland and Australia, including local Canberran Susanne Schmidt, found that,

...being able to talk about what was on your mind was more important than being listened to, having your faith valued or being understood. This paper concludes that this simple finding could be generalizable to all health and social care practitioners...for now it is essential that chaplains are [utilised] around the world to ask people in distress: 'what is on your mind?'

While this study was specifically trying to quantify the effectiveness of chaplains and pastoral care workers the authors were at the same time making a case that virtually anyone who cares for another human being, can make a huge difference in the lives of others simply by being willing to ask the question "What's on your mind?" If the person who is asking the question has the time to genuinely listen to the answer, in a caring and non-judgmental manner, then all sorts of possibilities for hope, growth and positive change can begin.

One of the great things about SJC is that this is at the core of what we do. What our Case Managers, volunteers and I are seeking to offer, apart from Emergency Food relief, is space for people to talk.

The other day I was able to meet with J who didn't want any material goods from us. He just wanted someone to listen with compassion and attentiveness. I was blown away by his repeated thanks for my time and the respect this enabled him to feel. The great privilege about my role at SJC is that I had the time to give him, we spoke for over an hour. Even though I've only been here for a few months, I have had this happen repeatedly.

As I commence my role here as Community chaplain, its research like this, confirmed by actual experience, that provides great encouragement to all of us, to keep doing what we are doing. I thank you for your partnership in this work. Please know, that your giving and support are making a big difference in the lives of many as we seek to continue not just to provide food for the hungry but also to give people space and time to talk about what is most pressing in their time of need.

Grace and Peace,

Nathan (Community Chaplain)

With 'voluntary assisted dying' (VAD) now implemented in the ACT, there's still room for care shaped by the hope of the resurrection. At this half-day conference, Professor Megan Best, an expert in palliative care, will address the impact of VAD for carers and patients. We will also hear some Christian thinking about suffering and death.
